Angela Vieth

Former Councillor for the City of Waterloo
Waterloo, Ontario, Canada

Cell: 226-476-6016

Email: angela@angelavieth.ca

Born and raised on a farm near Chatham Ontario, Angela completed her formal education at Wilfrid Laurier University, earning a Bachelor of Arts degree majoring in Music and French.

Since graduating in 1979, she has lived in Waterloo with her husband John. They have four adult children and eight grandchildren.

She coordinated the Kitchener Waterloo Kiwanis Music Festival for seven years and was employed part time by Eventastic.com as an Event Specialist.

Angela served four terms on Waterloo City Council. During that time, she also served on various City committees. Outside of the city Angela has chaired the City of Waterloo Communities in Bloom Committee, became a Communities in Bloom Provincial Judge and has judged many communities over the years. She chaired the KW Symphony Volunteer Committee and served as President of the KW Kiwanis Club for 2 years and is currently Lieutenant Governor (Designate) for Division 5 for the 2024-2025 Kiwanis Year.

In 2016 Angela started her own business called Your KW Host. Her company provides custom relocation tours for local companies who are in the process of hiring new employees.

Since her retirement from politics Angela has become a professional chauffeur with Brentwood Livery and enjoys spending her time chauffeuring folks around the province and to and from the airports.

Angela and her husband John are members of The Jazz Room in Waterloo. Angela also enjoys golfing, cycling, kickboxing, and spending time with her grandchildren Ella, Sophie, Wilhelm, Charlotte, Nora, Philip, Lucas and Otto.
